When he was accused of a sexual offense while working as a teacher s assistant, he looked right into the lens of a television camera and said he d stood up for every kid in town, and he hoped that someone would stand up for him. Almost everyone did exactly what he asked. A tireless worker, he s also been a waiter, a store clerk, a television host, an author, and a newspaper column writer-all at the same time. Long hours have been tough, but he s gotten satisfaction out of the work. In this series of vignettes, he urges readers to: Never give in to labels or opinion; be your own person. Never give up on yourself or others will surely follow. Accept the things you cannot change like death; embrace both good and bad memories, and keep marching. Make something good out of life s toughest situations. Through a divorce and losing family members and friends, there were times Canton felt lost, but he s always managed to survive. You can, too, with the realizations in Life Doesn t Have to be Perfect to be Wonderful.
