Without doubt, this is actually the best job by any publisher. It is written in basic phrases instead of difficult to understand. You will like the way the author publishes this publication.

Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: .as it is quoted in New York papers, at so many francs per dollar, we have the following figures: Swiss Exchange In New Yobk (pae 5.18 Francs For $1). i1917 average, 4.78. Oct. 30, 1918 4. 68 Nov. 29, 1918 4. 92 Feb. 15. 1919 4.92 It will be seen from these figures that Swiss exchange in New York was higher at the end of October, 1918, than the average for 1917, but much lower than at the high point of 1917, which was in December of that year. At one time in 1918, however, the rate had risen above the December, 1917, level. The rate at the end of November, 1918, was milch below the October, 1918, level and shows the effects of the armistice and the allied victory over the Central Powers. No further change occurred however, between November and February, 1919, the rate standing the same on February 15 as on November 29. PUBLIC FINANCE. These loans increased the public debt of Switzerland from 146,270,000 francs in 1913 to 745,050,000 francs at the end of 1917. In addition, a floating debt was being incurred from...
