.dispensations, and corrections, which are not necessary; to pluck from your heart all desire for the esteem of creatures, all sensual love; to turn you away for ever from the path of pride, and the thousand ways leading thereto. For the spirit of Satan can penetrate even into Carmel, and that in a very subtle manner, --so well does it harmonize with our natural inclinations. Let us then defy an enemy who knows our tendencies so well, --our love of imperfection and vanity. You know the comparison employed by the Masters of the Spiritual Life, in order to make us understand the action of Satan in us: -- It is given to Satan, they say, to use our imagination as if it were a harp, to press on it every touch, and to draw from it every sound . Now turn your eyes on the peaceful...
