Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Oration, Upon the Death of General Washington: Delivered at the Request of the Corporation of the City of New-York, on the 31st Day of December, 1799 Americans, Assembled to pay the last dues of filial piety to him who was the father of his country, it is meet that we take one last look at the man whom we have lost forever. Born to high destinies, he was fashioned for them by the hand of nature - His form was noble - His port majestic - On his front were enthroned the virtues which exalt, and those which adorn the human character. So dignified his deportment, no man could approach him but with respect - None was great in his presence.
