Reviews

Great electronic book and useful one. It can be written in straightforward terms rather than difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

A WOMAN'S PATH: MOTHERHOOD, LOVE AND PERSONAL DEVELOPMENT

Rudolf Steiner Press. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, A Woman's Path: Motherhood, Love and Personal Development, Almut Bockemuhl, Pauline Wehrle, 'A woman who wishes simultaneously to find herself as an individual and to devote herself to motherhood, is caught between two extremes that are hard to reconcile: how to integrate motherhood with one's deepest, personal aims?' Women today face the challenge of integrating the often conflicting demands of motherhood, partnership, work and personal development. Writing from the experience of 33 years' of marriage and raising four children, Almut Bockemuhl is in a good position to understand the predicaments women face, and to offer empathy based on knowledge. But this book also gives a profound, spiritual orientation for all women seeking to meet the challenges of their biography. At the heart of the dilemma she addresses is the care for family and the need to express oneself in a creative capacity: finding oneself and achieving personal goals. A natural desire for children does not necessarily mean a love of housework! Bockemuhl studies these conflicting tendencies in the biographies of women and reflects on the history of the women's movement. She discusses the mythical roots of motherliness and patriarchy and the mothering instinct itself, exploring the spiritual dimension and meaning of motherhood, the profession of homemaking, successful relationships and the clashes between life and work. But the central theme of this enlightening handbook is an inspiring path of personal development for mothers and women everywhere.
