Not illustrated. 1917 Excerpt: .yearbook are incomplete, and the tables of statistics will again this year be published in the proceedings. As reported to the Council last winter (January Bulletin, p. 29-30) the Committee has followed a policy of watchful waiting with respect to the statistical forms, contenting itself with receiving and attempting to answer criticisms. In view of the comparatively small number of such criticisms received, the Committee is led to conclude that the forms are proving reasonably satisfactory. On the subject of labor-saving devices the following statement has been furnished by Mr. C. Seymour Thompson, who has the work in hand: The committee hopes that it will be possible In the near future to commence the preparation of the manuscript of the work on labor-saving devices and equipment, the publication of which, subject to the approval of the Publishing Board, was authorized by the Council in December, 1915. The preparation of this work will require considerable time, for not only will great care have to be taken to verify from the manufacturers all information concerning their articles, but it is planned to submit different sections to various librarians who may have made special investigation of certain devices, for their criticisms and suggestions. In fairness to Mr. Thompson it should be explained that the task of reorganizing a library and of occupying a new building have interfered with the progress of this work. For the Committee, George F. Bowerman, Chairman. CODE OF PRACTICE FOR INTERLIBRARY LOANS (Constituting Report...
