The reports of the day are collected from the teachers, and entered in a defaulters book by one of the first class boys, who acts as school writer. These reports are investigated and punishments awarded by the Masters. The usual punishment for misbehaving or inattention is half an hour's confinement; for being troublesome or disobedient, one hour, for each offence. Obstinacy is generally punished with the cane, the quantity varying from 1 to 12 cuts on the hand, 12 cuts being the maximum allowed by the rules of the Asylum. A flogging is seldom ordered for any thing but stealing or indecency, and is then administered by one of the School Sergeants by the sanction and in the presence of the Principal at a special parade of...
