But from the settlement of their authorship there arises a further question, as to the language, or dialect, in which they were written. The word $, lao, answering to the Greek I-co, in three letters, for the ineffable Name, instead of the Scriptural word miT, Jehovah, in four, alone sufficiently indicates that language, or dialect, not to have been the Hebrew of the Old Testament. Hebrew words and phrases, indeed, in common with all the Semitic dialects, it has been shown, and will hereafter more fully be proved, to contain, but its vocabulary is not the Mosaic Hebrew. But if it be not Hebrew, the reason of the case tells us that it must have been the ancient Egyptian: the vernacular idiom of...

Reviews

A high quality pdf and also the typeface used was exciting to see. it absolutely was writtern really properly and useful. I am quickly could get a delight of looking at a composed pdf.
