Excerpt: .put out his hand and said-- Mr Macgregor, I believe as firmly as you do that Jesus Christ is the Son of God, and that He died for me, but I find it so hard to do what I know to be right. I have no power over some evil habits, etcetera. I told him of Jesus, the almighty Saviour, who could save him from all his sins, if he would but trust Him. He really seemed to feel it when I told him what a Saviour Jesus was to me, and bidding me good-night, he held out his hand, and said-- Sir, I do wish you every success in your work, and hope that your expectations concerning China may be all fulfilled. May God the Holy Ghost show him the folly of trusting to himself, or his filthy rags, and lead him to look to Him who is almighty to save, and whose blood--and that alone--can make a sinner fit to appear in the presence of a holy God. One of the third-class passengers is confined to his bed. Poor fellow, he is dying of consumption--a young, handsome, fine-looking man, of twenty two years of age. I have been trying to make him understand me. He is a Roman Catholic, but I think he never prays, and I think he is quite careless. I am glad that I took some jam with me, as his throat is very bad, and he has nothing to...
