Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from History of the Formation of the Ladies Society for the Promotion of Education at the West: With Two Addresses, Delivered at Its Organization The book published last summer, entitled The Duty of American Women to their Country, having been read by ladies of different denominations, in Boston and elsewhere, a simultaneous wish was expressed to take immediate action on the subject of sending pious female teachers to the West. When the Mission Sewing Circle connected with Mount Vernon Church and Society met, in October, to organize for the winter, this subject was presented, and a few ladies agreed to meet at an early day to converse, and, if possible, lay some plan for a future society to be organized. This informal meeting was held at Deacon Safford s, October 22, and about twenty ladies were present. All appeared deeply interested, and expressed a wish to do something at once for the object, but no one felt prepared to tell how to begin. However, before they separated, the ladies chose one of their number a committee to seek for the knowledge so much needed, and, if able to obtain it, the Committee was authorized to call a meeting and report.
