

Building the Mobile Internet (Paperback)

By Mark Grayson, Kevin Shatzkamer, Klaas Wieranga

Pearson Education (US), United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 185 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. The complete guide to technologies and protocols for delivering seamless mobile Internet experiences In Building the MobileInternet, three leading mobility architects and implementers from Cisco present complete foundational knowledge about tomorrow s mobile Internet. The authors cover everything from market trends and user expectations to the latest technical approaches for making the Internet mobile by design. Writing for senior technology decision-makers and network design professionals, the authors explain the relatively static nature of the Internet s original protocols and design, discuss the concept of mobility, and identify evolving mobility requirements. Next, they thoroughly explain each of today s most promising techniques for building mobility into the Internet, from data link layer to application layer. For each layer, the authors cover mechanisms, protocols, relevant Wi-Fi and cellular architectures, and key use cases. Using this book s guidance, mobile network executives can define more effective strategies, network designers can construct more effective architectures, and network engineers can execute more successful migrations. Mark Grayson, Cisco Distinguished Consulting Engineer, leads Cisco s mobile architecture strategy. He has 20+ years of wireless experience ranging from...
