Chap. Persecution raged through the reign of James, and---threatened to continue through the reign of his son and 1624-successor, Charles I. The various accounts sent to England by the colonists at Plymouth, excited great interest, especially in the minds of the Puritans. They listened to them as to a voice from Heaven, calling upon them to leave their native land, and join their brethren in these ends of the earth. This was not wild enthusiasm, but the calm promptings of duty. Pamphlets were published giving descriptions of the land of promise; it promised not wealth and ease, but only peace and quietness. There were many who preferred these, with toils and privations in the wilds of America, to religious persecutions in their own land. THE SETTLEMENT OF SALEM. 107 The Rev. Mr. White, of Dorchester, was a controlling Chap. spirit in the enterprise. He was a Puritan, but not of the---Separatists from the Established Church, as were Robin-1624son...
