If he had known her eyes so cold and bright, Watching the sunset s red, Held back within their deeps of purple light A storm of tears unshed. If he had known the keenly barbed jest, With such hard lightness thrown, Cut through the hot, proud heart within her breast Before it pierced his own. If she had known that when her calm glance swept Him as she passed him by, His blood was fire, his pulses madly leapt Beneath her careless eye. If she had known that when he touched her hand. And felt it still and cold, There closed round his wrung heart the iron band Of misery untold. If she had known that when her laughter rang In scorn of sweet past days, His very...
