Brand New Book  Print on Demand .A county librarian is forced from her job for distributing reports on a polluter that wants to move into town. A county attorney is intimidated into not prosecuting a felony because someone put a butchered pig s head in his pickup. An editor of a dissident newspaper is hunted down and assaulted. And a prominent attorney dies under mysterious circumstances in a plane wreck. The setting is Baker, a small town in southeastern Montana, where its community leaders have decided they would sacrifice anything for economic development.
