Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This books gives President Obama a thorough and proper vetting, the one he should have had before his first election. If we had known then what we know now, we d have never voted him into office. Everything he said and promised was built up lies, half truths and fabrications. Improper vetting can be devastating. Thanks to the new media, and dedicated Americans who love America and what we stand for have played an important role in pointing out things that otherwise would have remained unknown. This book was produced out of love for America. This is from an outflowing heart of someone who sees drastic changes that need to be stopped. They can be stopped and fixed with a new Administration. We have been deceived by a charlatan and flim flam man. There are many things we didn t know about this man the first time around. He deceived America with his soaring rhetoric, generalizing of terms and strong deceptions, but he never spoke from the heart. He has been the most divisive President having made division an art form. He spent the most and cared the littlest about the history, tradition and Constitution of the USA. Little did we know he was going to seal his records and give an apology tour right after becoming President. Little did we know he had fully decided a Socialism America, was for gay marriage, and other anti-Americanism shown through his action and policies. Our media let us down in this country. They have fallen asleep and are in bed with Obama. In this dangerous age of political correctness, many questions that should have been asked, weren t. Many associations...
