Westland Limited, New Delhi, India. Softcover. Book Condition: New. According to official records, a girl is raped in India every twenty-two minutes. Unofficial estimates put it at more like one every five minutes. That was just a statistic to me. Until they raped and killed my little sister. The police dont want to pursue the case the media blame her and the men who killed her walk free. Its time men like them learn that they can no longer get away with it. Its time they learn the meaning of fear. Its time they learn that a woman need not just beg and plead for her dignity she can fight and kill for it. I am just an ordinary woman but sometimes all it takes to get the ball rolling is for one person to create a little mayhem.
